Large floor plates allow for floor-to-ceiling windows that show the beauty of the landscape.

A wide variety of fresh, local cuisine is available at the cafeteria, which has five different food stations.

The west facade showcases the outdoor terraces and green roof area for quiet reflection. Pathways and ramps connect the building to the trails.

The first-floor break room in the east wing leads to an outdoor terrace and gives the nod to the local landscape and wildlife.

The lobby features large windows that infuse natural light throughout the space and highlight the heritage trees.

The Oracle waterfront campus is sited for proximity to Lady Bird Lake, the hike-and-bike trail, and connectivity to the area’s natural surroundings.

Large floor plates allow for floor-to-ceiling windows that show the beauty of the landscape.

The break rooms provide views of Austin and access to the outdoors to relax and recharge.